Wondering how to get a vocational student status?

On the procedures and terms of obtaining the status of a vocational student by the director of the institution:

Exact name of the vocational education program, level, tuition fee and number of seats;

What documents do you need to present?

- Personal (in case of minors - legal representative's) statement;
- A copy of the passport / identity document;
- A document certifying education (in case of education abroad, the document confirming the recognition of education by the National Center for Educational Quality Enhancement),
- 2 photos 3x4 and its electronic version (on disk).

The order of the Director defines:

- ✓ Terms for launching and completing the submission of documents;
- ✓ Learning process start and end date..

In case of incomplete submission of the documents, it is necessary to provide a complete presentation of the documents before issuing a vocational student's status.

You will be granted a vocational student status after the director of the institution issuing a decree on obtaining the status of a vocational student, after contracting with you and registering in vocational education institutions.

Suspension of vocational student status

Do you know the cause of the suspension of a student's status?

- a) Personal application;
- b) Enter the legal verdict of the conviction sentence by the court when the verdict should be executed in such a way that is incompatible with learning;
- c) Financial debt;
- d) Deterioration of health, pregnancy and newborn care;
- e) Instances of the institution's labor regulations and other grounds.

Suspension of vocational student status

In case of termination of the status of the vocational student, the amount paid for study will not be returned, but while continuing the course will be considered in the tuition fee.

The status of a vocational student may be suspended for no more than 5 years. The vocational student will be deprived of the status of a student unless the status quo will not be renewed within the timeframe..

The status of a vocational student can be restored in the event of elimination of the grounds of status suspension within the same vocational education program.

In case of restoring the status of a vocational student, the vocational student will be considered to have passed the credits used before the suspension of the status and will continue to study on the vocational education program at the stage of which the student's status was suspended.

Suspension of vocational student status

The basis for termination of the status of a vocational student:

- ✓ Personal application;
- ✓ Completion of the vocational program at the given level;
- ✓ Death;
- ✓ The verdict passed in a lawful penalty for a serious or especially serious offense of a vocational student on a criminal offense, which envisages more than 5 years of imprisonment;
- ✓ Stop student status for more than 5 years during study period;
- ✓ Instances of the institution's labor regulations and other grounds

Suspension of vocational student status

After termination of the status of a student, the issue of restoring the status of a student is not considered and the amount paid before the termination of the status is not returned.

Legal results envisaged by the Decree on termination of the status of a vocational student shall be issued after 12 months from the date of issuing the order. In this period of time, the status of a vocational student is considered suspended and the vocational student is entitled to use mobility and move to other vocational educational institutions.

Mobility of vocational student

Vocational student can benefit from one of the professional educational programs of mobility through the second vocational education program (internal mobility) or other facility (external mobility);

Vocational student of another institution can move to a vocational education program of the Institution.

The basis of mobility procedure is a student's application (the application must be attached by a copy of the document, according to which the person is enrolled in a vocational education institution and copies of other documents contained in the student's personal case), based on which the issue of the modification of the module's learning results and the confirmation of the individual results of the module is determined.

Evaluation of achievements

The assessment of the achievement of a vocational student is developing and determining.

Developing assessment may be made based on the vocational teacher's decision, using the scores as well as the principles of passing.

The determining assessment provides the use of the system based on the principles of passing (based on the competences) and gives the following two types of assessment: a) Learning outcome has been confirmed;

b) Learning outcome has not been confirmed.

In case of receiving a negative assessment, a vocational student has the right to require the confirmation of the learning results before the completion of the vocational education program or before the next module, the predecessor of which was the module that was not confirmed. The vocational student has the opportunity to realize the above right within a study result only twice.

Evaluation of achievements

The vocational student has the right to appeal against the decision on the basis of a personal application submitted to the Director within 3 working days on the basis of a personal application submitted to the Director

If the student fails to confirm the results of the study within one study result, the vocational student has the right to reenter the module repeatedly , for which he/she is obliged to pay the fee for above-mentioned module, which is determined by the number of credits granted to the vocational student, and one credit fee is the full cost of the vocational education program, divided in total number of vocational educational programs credits.

Introduction of the evaluation results for a vocational student is carried out through an electronic management system of the institution
